HOPP

STRENGTHS:

High Football IQ, sets up the DB by reading their body positioning and eyes. Finds the open space in the defensive coverage. Blocks very well, likes contact. Great leaping ability. Seems to be having fun while playing. He dominates this level of play. This kid dominates wherever he plays College, Arena, Euro. When he gets into a NFL camp, his work ethic will prove fruitful in the right situation.

WEAK POINTS:

27 year old Rookie. Is the only thing I see keeping him out or someone not taking a chance on him.

SUMMARY:

This kid can play, has huge numbers of productivity wherever he has played during and after college. He is a Diamond.
